023 02 JUNE 2020 – A LITTLE DIFFERENT NEWSLETTER THIS TIME AROUND

Note: For comments, suggestions or tips, please contact Larry. To view past newsletters or homepage.

PREFACE: No need to tell our readers that this has been a very tumultuous week, to say the least. That said, we have decided NOT to go into the George Floyd murder, and consequent protests – and thuggish riots. I am sure everybody is fully aware of what is going on. In our last Newsletter we quit talking about the Wuhan Virus, too.

With that in mind, we wanted to restate our policy here at LawrenceKlepinger.com.

Our main desire, in starting this Website/Newsletter, was to help readers get more information that was not of the Main Stream ilk. In this issue, we intend to do things a little differently – and hopefully a little more interesting, and upbeat at the same time.

ON WITH THE SHOW!

First off, I'd like to introduce four very informative Newsletters that you might find helpful in your search for alternative news sites:

Lew rockewell.com

This news site has a lot of news and information not found anywhere else. It is very informative and has a lot of articles that other sites simply do not touch.

Geller Report

This site will explain itself, once you start to read the contents. Pamela Geller is very well verse in what she says and does – thus the reason she has been banned from speaking engagements and also banned on the main stream social media. Check it out and see what you think.

Red Pill University

For those of you with the stomach to really dig deep into a lot of what is going on, please check this site out. It has a plethora of articles and pertinent information that you will not find anywhere else.

Need to Know

This is done by, G. Edward Griffin, famous author and critic. I think you will find this website extremely informative – with links to other sites as well.

LET'S LOOK TO THE FUTURE

It is imperative that we are all informed, ready and prepared for what the future holds in store for us. We believe that financial independence is one of the underlying pillars of being a Sovereign Individual.

With that in mind, I would like to show you two great investment websites.

Market Beat

Market Beat is free and full of investment information. You can upgrade if you wish, but I don't do that. This free newsletter should be enough for conservative investors. Please check it out, play with all the buttons and see what you think. This is one of my favorite investment sites.

SureDividend.com

This site, on occasion, comes with the Market Beat site above. It is very informative and gives in depth insight to the Stock Market and what is really going on. Please check this one out, and see what you think. This current article shows the holdings of Warren Buffett and explains some of his investment strategies.

COVERED CALLS

One of the most conservative ways to increase your weekly/monthly income is through the use of writing and selling covered calls.

Our pro bono attorney has advised me that, since I am not an authorized stockbroker, I should not go into detail about this relatively easy procedure. He said I should recommend you to ask your stockbroker to explain the details.

Also, he recommended that you can go on-line and find the information there. It is an easy way to tie in ex-dividend stocks, with writing covered calls on the upcoming dividend paying stocks. I do this all the time and it certainly is a good way to increase your weekly/monthly income.

I have also been advised that you can lose money on any investment – so get professional assistance before attempting to trade in covered calls.

NOW FOR A FEW PREDICTIONS

When I was running for Congress, eons ago, I used to make predictions. One lady, who sadly has passed to the other side of the Rainbow, kept score of my successful calls. She said I had about a 73% rating of being correct. If you would like to keep score, I invite you do so.

As most readers know, deflection is one of the paramount methods of the so-called progressive/socialist/communist movement.

“Look over there. No! Look over this way.”

You get the idea. With that one concept in mind here are a few predictions of my own for coming months.

1. As you know the launch and the subsequent docking of the Privately Owned and Operated Endeavor was a rousing success. I think China filled a few Depends to the limit when they saw the blastoff and also the hookup. My prediction is that China will try to deflect to COVID-19, by continuing to blame the USA, so as not to notice their move on Hong Kong. Also, in the mix, is China’s moving 5000 Red Army troops to its border with India – a move that has received scant attention from the main stream media – and for good reason. The key word again – deflection.

2. President Trump is going to come down hard on China, not only in Hong Kong, but also in Taiwan. My prediction is that Trump will move to make Hong Kong an Independent Sovereign Country.

3. After Hong Kong, I predict Trump will force China's hand and make a move to do the same thing with Taiwan – thus forcing all of America's allies to fall in line with Trump's declaration, or risk being portrayed as siding with Communist China against America.

4. President Trump will appoint a new Supreme Court Justice before the November election, replacing Clarence Thomas, and thus, making his third Supreme Court appointment. At the beginning of Trump's presidency, I predicted that he would make four appointments, if reelected.

5. With the Worldwide Hoax of the Wuhan Virus, and the George Floyd murder/protest/riots behind him, Trump will now guide the economy to new heights. I predict that, by election day, the unemployment will be down to 8%, and the Stock Market will be on another roll.

6. I also predict that Joe Biden will not be the Democrat candidate for president. I think there will be a brokered convention, chaos will ensue for the whole world to see – and two new candidates will emerge, to challenge Trump. If Michelle Obama is in the mix, then it is going to be a horse race. If she is not, I predict that the Republicans will win back the House, retain the Senate – and reelect President Trump for another four years.

7. And if the above prediction is correct, I predict that there will be riots in the streets that are going to make the current riots look like child’s play.

These last two predictions are, by far, the most speculative, so I would not be surprised if those calls are not correct – but I am making them anyway.

An age old adage:

“Any man who talks, but refuses to predict, is not worth listening to.”

AND NOW, A VERY STUNNING VIDEO

I am always surprised at how informed our readers are. This next video has a very surprising – and shocking ending. Please do not get turned off by the “Preacher tone” of the speaker. Stick with this very impactful story – and in the end you will be stunned – that I can guarantee.

AND NOW, SOMETHING FUN TO WATCH – THE BEAST

Here is a driving demonstration that you have to see to believe.

This is the Secret Service driver for the Presidential Limousine – nicknamed “The Beast. You have to be impressed by the way this driver handles this, almost 800 horsepower monster – in reverse!

The Beast

In closing, I would like to thank the many readers who have sent me information. Much of the above has been forwarded to me by our many friends and readers. I could not do it without them.

As stated in an earlier Newsletter, I have been advised not to include names, for legal considerations, but I want you all to know how grateful we are for your help and continued support!

That is it for now. Take care, stay safe and keep thinking positive!

Until next time, Sayonara from Kobe, Japan
