WHAT CAN I DO? WHITE PRIVILEGE AND WHAT IT REALLY MEANS

PREFACE: First off, I want to thank the many readers who responded to our Newsletter Issue 023 dated 02 June 2020. It seems a lot of you really liked the other news sites – and especially the investment references.

Glad we could be of service!

ON WITH THE SHOW!

WHAT CAN I DO?

This is the overriding question that readers keep asking. I know how frustrating it can be, seeing America slipping into the abyss.

However, all is not lost.

A reader, living in California, sent me some information that I am posting below:

Federal:

<https://www.house.gov/>

<https://www.senate.gov/>

California:

<http://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov/>

<https://www.senate.ca.gov/>

Now you have the ammunition to get started. But it will take a little effort on the reader's part to make it happen.

You can contact your representative by using any of the above websites.

That is the First Step.

After contacting your representative, you can call your local GOP office and ask how you can be a volunteer. They always can use help, either at their precinct office, or at any of their headquarter offices around your state.

You can offer to put up signs (during my campaign we put up 750 signs, around 4 counties), you can run errands, help around the office, go door-to-door handing out campaign leaflets, do “signage” at intersections (we did this at major intersections all around the 4 counties, and got very good responses – and the occasional single-fingered salute, too), cook food, make coffee, help clean up after hours – and also get to meet a lot of interesting people. Just ask, and they will have something for you to do.

You can also send this Newsletter around to all your friends on your email list. That would be a great help to us, too!

WHITE PRIVILEGE AND WHAT IT REALLY MEANS

This subject is going to be a touchy one – given the lack of spine that so many white people are displaying these days.

First off, if you are a “person of color” – and reading this Newsletter – welcome aboard!

We are all Americans here, regardless of race, religion, creed, color, gender, national origin – or any other designation that you wish to choose.

However, this is specifically directed toward white people who feel guilty about their “whiteness.” If you fall into that category, I pity you.

History is replete with groups who try to shame other people into doing what they really don’t want to do.

The Mayor of Los Angeles actually “took a knee” to show his “solidarity” with the “peaceful” protesters in Los Angeles.

And look at what happened to L.A.

So, first of all, do not be ashamed of who you are. Be more concerned with what you are.

Yes, there is a very disturbing aspect that is emerging around America – and that is the ridiculous notion of “white privilege.”

This is ironic, in that America just got over EIGHT years of having a person of color (half black) as president.

And what did Barack Obama do for the “people of color?”

Practically nothing. There still are slums/ghettos in every major city, inhabited by “people of color.”

Their plight got WORSE, not better while Barack Obama was president. And much of his staff, and many appointees were also “people of color.”

Thus, the reason so many “people of color” voted for Donald Trump in 2016 – and will do so again in 2020.

Why?

Because they had nothing to lose.

But this white “shaming” has a much deeper reason for coming out, in less than 5 months before the General Election.

Toss this notion around in your head, just for a moment.

As for America, I hope our thoughts on Michelle Obama do NOT come true, and that Joe Biden is actually the Democratic nominee.

But what happens if that is not the case? What happens if a “person of color” (Michelle Obama) comes riding in at the last moment, to save the Democratic Party – and the Nation.

With Michelle Obama as the presumptive nominee, these “white-privilege” bullies will start saying the following:

“If you don’t vote for Michelle Obama, then you are racist. And if you don’t vote for her, you are a misogynist. You hate black people and you hate women!”

“You are a racist bigot!”

Do you start to see where this “white-privilege” thing is really going?

And from what I have seen on the news lately – there are a LOT of white people who can be bullied into actually “taking a knee” right on the sidewalk, and allowing themselves to be taunted and belittled – just for being white.

The next thing you know, white people will be required to wear a Yellow Star!

If you think I am far-fetched in this idea, just look around and see what most people are wearing today, as I write.

MASKS! Because of the Wuhan Virus.

Now, whatever happened to that “plandemic” that freaked out the WHOLE World?

Seems no one is “social-distancing” these days.

What the hell is going on? Suddenly the “plandemic” is gone? Over with? Kaput?

Or was that just a trial run to see how far they could goad people into doing something totally against their Sovereign Individual will?

If that was the case, then I would say it was a rousing success – especially for Americans – the Home of the Free – because of the Brave!

So, the bullying seems to have worked.

And now, since everybody all over the Country, and the World, were so totally convinced that 2.2 MILLION people were going to die – unless they “practiced social-distancing, put 20 MILLION people out of work, destroyed businesses, ruined families, and sadly caused a spike in suicides. Talk about scaring the hell out of everyone!

However, if this Wuhan Virus is REALLY that bad, then in about 10 days we should see a huge spike in this so-called “pandemic.”

But what happens if there is no spike? Then what?

Either all the “scientists,” who led us to believe that millions were going to die, were full of bovine excreta – or they were simply lying to all of us, for power, prestige – or money. Or maybe, all three!

None of us, here at our Website ever wore a mask.
None of us got sick. All of us were never taken asunder by the media hype and medical hoax.

As Sovereign Individuals, we think for ourselves.

Now, ask yourself, did you wear a mask? If so, are you going to keep wearing it, if the media shames
you into doing so?

Are you going to allow yourself do be harangued into doing other things that you instinctively know are not right?

How far will you go in letting other people dictate to you, how to live your own life?

These are serious questions that you must start to ask yourself.

The Presidential General Election is less than 5 months away.

Now is the time to get involved. Don't put it off another minute. For those of you, who have not yet done so, get up off your ass, quit complaining, and GET INVOLVED.

And now, I will leave you with one last question, to contemplate.

When I went to school, black was a color. White was also a color.

Does that not make us all, “People of Color?”

That is it for now. Take care, stay safe and keep thinking positive!

Until next time, Sayonara from Kobe, Japan
