LESS THAN 74 DAYS TO GO
SOME MORE VIDEOS OF INTEREST,
ARTICLES, AND A FEW MORE
PREDICTIONS – AND A MEA CULPA

For comments, suggestions or tips, please contact Larry. To view past newsletters or homepage.

NOTE: Again, we want to thank all of our readers who continually send us information from all parts of the World. Our following is picking up drastically, to which we are gratefully surprised.

It is an honor to have people still signing up, passing our Newsletter along, and keeping us energized with all your nice comments – and a few not so nice emails.

So goes life.

ON WITH THE SHOW!

A few readers complained that we are too far out in our coverage and that they feel helpless to be able to do anything about China, the Wuhan Virus, Antifa, etc, so we decided to localize this Newsletter and see what kind of response we get.

We know that it is very frustrating to see what is going on and not be able to actually let our voices be heard in a meaningful way.

Today we hope this Newsletter will help to rectify that problem.

OUR PUBLIC EDUCATION SYSTEM

First, a look at how some of our “college students” act and think.

RACIAL STATEMENTS BY DONALD TRUMP

What is simply amazing is that these are University students for the most part, they think they know it all, then find out that these comments were by Biden, not

Trump – but yet they still try to talk their way out of it.

This is exactly the kind of response I always get from the Liberal ilk that is infesting Japanese universities nowadays.

But what is even more disheartening is that these “kids” were not even aware of these quotes being from Biden – although they have been all over FOX News, to the point of utter boredom.

Scroll down to the Read More Red Box, click and watch the actual interview. It is truly amazing how these “children” have been indoctrinated.

So, I am wondering what “News” service they are really watching.

I am thankful that I am old enough not to know all the answers!

THIRD ATOMIC BOMB ATTACK?

The reason I am including this information is to show just how inept our public school system really is in disseminating actual historical information.

How many readers have actually heard about this plan. Probably not many.

It is just another example of how skewed our “public education system” really is.

Please watch the whole video. I guarantee you will be astonished at what you really don’t know. I know I was!

MY TAKE ON THE SO-CALLED PUBLIC EDUCATION SYSTEM

When I completed my graduate studies and received my MA in Education (Administration and Supervision) I was totally disheartened, dismayed and truly disgusted at what I had learned, first hand, during my course of studies.

I discovered that all public education systems are basically set up the same, with regard to the social structure of importance.

The following is the way most of these education systems are organized, with relation to the Status Quo power structure:

1. The Government, Local, State, Federal are the controlling factors – regardless of what the academic community says to the contrary.
2. The Administration, as the Lieutenants in charge of implementing the dictates of the Governmental Status Quo.
3. Teachers Unions, who keep the teachers in line, under the guiding force of the Administration – while pretending to represent the teachers’ best interests.
4. The teachers, the pawns in the overall scheme of things.
5. The students, the sheep being led to the slaughterhouse.
6. And at the bottom rung, the parents, the ones to be fleeced both through property taxes that go to support mandatory education, and then when the children go to “college or university” to get fleeced, yet again.

With this system firmly entrenched into our dictated trend of thinking – you can now start to see why the public education system is so TOTALLY against the concept of private schools, charter schools and home schooling in general.

But with the outbreak of this pandemic hoax, it seems that the silver lining is the fact that kids can get an adequate education without the indoctrination of the Status Quo Public Education System – and that scares the daylights out of both the Government and those who are attached directly to the system.

They are not worried about the education of their charges – but are totally concerned with the loss of power (of indoctrination) and that of a lifetime pension system, complete with medical/dental care at a fraction of the cost for life – at the taxpayers' expense. Pensions – and vacations – are the most underlying items that these “public educators” are concerned with.

Thus, the reason so many teachers today refuse to speak up, voice their true feelings – and instead, just go along in hopes of retiring with full benefits in hand.

No wonder, the Status Quo is so adamant at abolishing any type of alternative education that is completely out of their maniacal, power hungry grasp. For these kinds of institutions, by their very existence – are an existential threat to their power base and financial well-being.

If you have children in the age group of K-12, if at all possible, please choose an alternative system of education – or else risk losing your child to the State Status Quo much sooner than you think.

A FEW MORE PREDICTIONS

1. It seems to me that whoever wins this election a very nasty Second Civil War is in the making.
2. If Trump wins – the Democrats will say he stole the election (by stealing mailboxes, if you can believe that stretch).
3. If the Democrats win – the Republicans will most likely dispute the election results – especially the counting of the mail-in ballots.
4. It was just reported this morning that shipments of guns and ammunition have been sent to certain parts of the country to be used in a “TET” Offensive type of assault sometime before the Election. I have not confirmed this but it seems to be true. Keep your eyes peeled.

5. There will be shootings, drive-bys (at election polling areas), thugs with clubs keeping Trump voters from voting, and other nefarious activities as many areas will simply be void of police protection.

A MEA CULPA

My number one prediction, that the DNC would be a brokered convention was wrong.

My apologies.

Also, my prediction that I honestly thought would happen, did not come to pass. Michelle Obama was not injected into the nomination – which I am totally thankful for.

I apologize for that bad call, too. I owe some C-notes to a few people on that one.

But, with keeping that in mind, I double my prediction that Trump (now that Obama is out of the picture for the moment) will be re-elected and retain the White House, the House of Representatives will revert back to the GOP, and the Republicans will retain control of the Senate.

I know many of you are keeping score – so I am ready with my knife and fork to eat copious amounts of crow. But it will be a meal that I will relish – in the long run.

Now that Michelle is gone the Democrats are toast. And you can take that one to the bank – I HOPE!

I honestly thought she would step in and rally the Democrats. As a student of politics (BA in Political Science) I think they made a disastrous mistake not going with her. That would have been my choice, hands down.

But, as President Trump likes to say:

“We shall see.”

WAKE UP AMERICA!
THIS IS YOUR LAST CHANCE!

That is it for now. Take care, stay safe and keep thinking positive.

Until next time, Sayonara from Kobe, Japan!
